

WONDERING WHAT OBAMACARE MEANS FOR YOU?

The health care law makes health insurance more affordable for millions of people who are uninsured. It also requires most Americans to have health insurance. That means millions of people will be getting insurance for the first time. Share this information with your family and friends to help them choose a plan that meets their needs.

And we will continue to provide quality health care—whether you have insurance or not.

To learn more about the new health care law, visit us:

Date _____ Time _____ Where _____

Get this information ready for you and anyone else in your household who needs coverage:

- | | | |
|--|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Social Security number (SSN) | <input type="checkbox"/> Birth date | <input type="checkbox"/> Employer's phone number |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Document number (if you're an eligible immigrant who wants health coverage) | <input type="checkbox"/> Paystubs, W-2 forms, or other info about your income | <input type="checkbox"/> Policy/member numbers for any current health coverage |

To learn more and sign up for coverage, visit
healthcare.gov